Respected Madam/Sir,

The Indian International Science Festival (IISF) is jointly organized by Ministry of Science & Technology, Ministry of Earth Sciences and Ministry of Health & Family Welfare in association with Vijnana Bharati (VIBHA), annually. The 6th IISF is being organized from 22nd – 25th December 2020 at New Delhi in virtual mode. In line with the overall theme of the festival “Science for Self-reliant India & Global welfare” an event–cum-contest Nav Bharat Nirman (NBN) – Building of the New India is being organized on 23rd – 24th December 2020. The event NBN : IISF 2020 will provide a reflecting platform for all the interested participants who want to be part of the Nation Development by promoting their projects /models/displays as solutions of some problem statements and will in turn result in reciprocation of knowledge and emerging of ideas for National interest. The identified Plenary Sessions “Igniting Young Minds for Solution centric STI Interventions” are specified below:

1. Building self-reliant SMART villages for Inclusive Growth
2. Agriculture, Post-Harvest technology & Rural Engineering
3. Innovative Ideas for Habitat & Water Resources Management
4. Promoting Innovative Ecosystem for Affordable Renewable and Clean Energy Solutions
5. Nature based solutions-Resource efficiency & Circular Economy
6. Strategic Climate Action Plan for Sustainable Future

Program details of NBN and invite letter are attached herewith. For more details and registration, IISF website: <https://scienceindiafest.org/> maybe visited.

In this regard, you are requested kindly to bring this event to the notice of students/scientists/research scholars and encourage them to submit their innovative ideas/projects/model in identified plenary sessions as mentioned above under NBN event through online platform of IISF 2020 before 15th December, 2020.

With kind regards

Yours sincerely,

(Rajnish Jain)
