To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the Creations shall be deemed works made for hire under India copyright or applicable laws or any equivalent laws of applicable foreign jurisdictions, and all rights, title, and interest in and to the Creations shall vest automatically in the Employer or a Connected Entity, as determined by the Employer.

I hereby assign and irrevocably agree to assign all right, title, and interest including, but not limited to, patent, copyright, trade secret, trademark, and other proprietary rights, in and to such Creations to the Employer or a Connected Entity, as determined by the Employer (as to copyright, to the extent such Creations are held not to be works made for hire under applicable law). I will (a) promptly notify the Employer in writing of any Creations, and deliver to the Employer the tangible form of all Creations (including any copies); and (b) provide the Employer and any person designated by the Employer or a Connected Entity, at the expense of

If, in breach of my obligations under this Agreement, I use any Creations or Proprietary Information in conceiving, developing or creating any materials, creations, designs, technology, discoveries, inventions, ideas, information or other tangible or intangible matter after termination of my employment with the Employer, I acknowledge and agree that such tangible or intangible matter constitutes, at the sole discretion of the Employer or a Connected Entity, Creations subject to the assignment requirement, and the other terms and conditions, of this Agreement.

Only a Creation that meets all of the following criteria would be considered a personal work ("Personal Work"):

To the extent that such waivers are deemed unenforceable under applicable law, I grant, and agree to grant, to the Employer or its designees the exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide and royalty-free license to use, modify and market such rights, without identifying me or seeking my consent. I agree that my obligation to render any cooperation for the foregoing shall continue even after termination of my relationship with the Employer.

Upon demand by the Employer, I shall immediately deliver /hand over all information/ material relating to the Creations in my possession, in a tangible form and to the satisfaction of the Employer or Connected Entities.

6. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Any position with the Employer calls for whole time employment and I agree to devote myself exclusively to the business of the Employer.

During my period of employment, I will not, directly or indirectly, participate in or in any way render services or assistance to any business, whether or not for compensation, or engage in any conduct which might result in, or create the appearance of using my position for private gain or other than for the benefit of the Employer or a Connected Entity, or otherwise create a conflict, or the appearance of a conflict, of interest with the Employer or a Connected Entity. Such conduct shall include, but not be limited to, having an undisclosed financial interest in any vendor or supplier of the Employer or a Connected Entity, accepting payments of any kind or gifts other than of a nominal value from vendors, clients or suppliers, or having any outside employment, having an undisclosed relationship with a family member or other individual who is employed or associated with any entity in active or potential competition with the Employer or Connected Entity, and which creates a conflict of interest. I represent and warrant that I am not currently aware of any present or past violation of this provision.

7. FUTURE EMPLOYMENT WITH CLIENT

Section 7, Future Employment with Client, is only applicable to positions at manager level and above.

Except as otherwise provided herein, I understand that I am not prohibited from accepting employment with a client (or an affiliate of such client) of the Employer or a Connected Entity. Before entering into substantive discussions with an attest client (or an affiliate of such client) of Appcino Technologies Pvt. Ltd., or a Connected Entity regarding any employment opportunity with such client or affiliate, I acknowledge and agree that during the period of my employment with the Employer and for three years thereafter I must first notify National Office of Appcino Technologies Pvt. Ltd., or the applicable Assurance Professional Practice Director of Appcino Technologies Pvt. Ltd. and obtain prior written approval from National Office or such Assurance Professional Practice Director. I acknowledge and understand that it is the intent of the Employer to interpret and apply this provision

(a) to ensure the full compliance of the Employer and the Connected Entities with Indian laws, rules and regulations;

(b) to serve the public interest; and

(c) to protect the legitimate interests of the Employer and the Connected Entities or their respective clients (and affiliates of such clients) in a manner that is no greater than is reasonably necessary to protect such interests and without being unduly harsh and oppressive to me and my interests in future employment with a client (or an affiliate of such client) of the Employer or any Connected Entity. Further, I acknowledge and agree that because of, among other things, the importance of the Employer and the Connected Entities remaining in compliance with applicable Appcino rules, such approval may be granted or withheld by the National Office or such Assurance Professional Practice Director in the event that my employment with an attest client (or an affiliate of such client) would, in the view of Appcino Technologies Pvt. Ltd., be inconsistent with Indian laws, rules or regulations or jeopardize the independence of the Employer or any Connected Entity with respect to such attest client (or an affiliate of such client).

8. NON-SOLICITATION

The following non-solicitation provisions are designed to protect the investment of the Employer and all Connected Entities in their clients and employees, valid business needs in today's competitive marketplace. Nevertheless, this Agreement is not intended to limit an employee's ability to pursue a professional career upon leaving the Employer.

a. Non-Solicitation of Clients. I acknowledge that, because of the nature of my work for the Employer or a Connected Entity, my solicitation or serving of certain clients related to my work for the Employer or a Connected Entity would necessarily involve the unauthorized use or disclosure of Proprietary Information of the Employer or a Connected Entity, and the proprietary relationships and goodwill of the Employer or a Connected Entity, and, in the case of my serving of certain clients, could compromise the full compliance of the Employer or any Connected Entities with the laws, rules and regulations of the India, or Appcino-related requirements of a government regulatory body. Accordingly, during the period of my employment with the Employer and for three years thereafter, I will not, directly or indirectly, solicit or provide services to any client of the Employer or a Connected Entity to which I provided (or participated in a proposal to provide) services during the two-year period prior to termination of my employment with the Employer. In this regard, I acknowledge and agree that the market for the kinds of services I rendered or will render as part of my work for the Employer or a Connected Entity reaches throughout, and in certain instances beyond, India and that the Proprietary Information which has been and will be provided to me relates to similar kinds of services rendered by the Employer or a Connected Entity throughout, and in certain instances beyond, India and therefore the geographic scope of this Agreement is reasonable and is designed to protect the Employer's or a Connected Entity's legitimate business interests in the preservation of Proprietary Information.

b. Non-Solicitation of Personnel. I acknowledge that, because of the nature of my work for the Employer or a Connected Entity, my solicitation or hiring of any partner, principal, member, officer or employee of or any contractor to the Employer or a Connected Entity, or my participation in their hiring, admission or retention, as the case may be, would necessarily involve the unauthorized use or disclosure of Proprietary Information of the Employer or a Connected Entity, and the proprietary relationships and goodwill of the Employer or a Connected Entity. Accordingly, during the period of my employment with the Employer and for one year thereafter, I will not, directly or indirectly, (a) solicit or attempt to solicit, or participate in the solicitation of or any attempt to solicit any partner, principal, member, officer or employee of the Employer or a Connected Entity to leave the Employer or a Connected Entity, or to join any firm or business with which I may be or become affiliated, or (b) participate in the hiring or admission of any partner, principal, member, officer or employee of the Employer or a Connected Entity, or (c) cause a contractor of the Employer or a Connected Entity to cease providing services to, with, or on behalf of the Employer or such Connected Entity.

Sexual Harassment Policy

This policy prohibiting harassment applies to all practitioners of Appcino Technologies Pvt. Ltd.

Appcino is committed to providing a work environment free of any intimidation or harassment which is in any way related to an individual's race, color, religion, gender, sexual preference, genetic information, atypical hereditary cellular or blood trait, ancestry, national origin, age, marital and family status, veteran status, disabilities, or any other classification, as protected by local law.

Specifically prohibited is any type of behavior involving verbal or physical conduct by any practitioner which harasses, disrupts, or interferes with another's work performance or which creates an intimidating, offensive or hostile work environment.

Harassment or intimidation includes, but is not limited to, slurs, epithets, threats, derogatory or objectionable conduct in the form of remarks, pictures, objects, inappropriate jokes, teasing, or any other type of conduct of a physical or verbal nature which is directed against someone due to any of the aforementioned personal characteristics.

Appcino expects that all relationships among persons in and out of the office, from the most senior Practitioner to the most junior administrative staff member, will be businesslike and free of bias, prejudice and harassment.

Appcino recognizes that its practitioners may be subjected to prohibited harassment by non-Employer practitioners who conduct business with Appcino. In these circumstances, the Employer acknowledges its responsibility to support and assist the Practitioner subjected to such harassment.

Sexual Harassment

Prohibited harassment of a sexual nature is more specifically defined as any unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual or otherwise hostile nature if

- Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly of an individual's employment;
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions or benefits affecting such individual; or
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

Prohibited Conduct

Sexual harassment may include a range of subtle and not so subtle behaviors and may involve individuals of the same or different gender. Examples of conduct that may be considered to be sexual harassment, depending on the circumstances, may include, but are not limited to: intentional physical conduct which is sexual in nature, off-color jokes or language, sexually suggestive pictures or objects circulated via email, verbal comments about an individual's appearance or sexuality, propositions, sexual advances, sexual or degrading gestures, verbal abuse of a sexual nature and the like, whether communicated in person or through electronic media.

The behavior illustrated as examples above is unacceptable in the workplace and anywhere else involving employment relationships, including but not limited to overnight business trips, business conducted in other offices, business conferences or training sessions, parties sponsored by the Employer, business-related social events, over the telephone or voice mail or by email.

Complaint Procedure

The Employer wants every individual to know that the following procedures exist to report any harassment complaint.

These procedures should be followed whenever an individual believes that he or she has been the subject of harassment or observes or has knowledge of a violation of the Employer's policy on harassment.

- Report the incident or conduct in question to a Supervisor, the Human Resources Representative or the Managing Director. The individual reporting the incident or conduct may choose the one he or she is most comfortable with—the choice is strictly up to the individual.
- Anyone in a Supervisory or Management position who observes or has knowledge of a violation of the Employer's policy on harassment (whether or not a complaint has been filed) has an obligation to report the situation to the Human Resources Representative or the Managing Director.
- Report the offending incident or conduct promptly. The individual making the complaint should also feel free to report the incident or conduct even if in the past it was not reported, or if he or she has taken some time to decide to make the complaint.

The Employer has no requirement for the form or content of a harassment complaint, only that it be made in good faith.

The complaint may be verbal or written. It is suggested that the individual making the complaint provide as much information as possible regarding the offending incident or conduct, such as what happened or is continuing to happen, the person or persons causing the harassment, and the time(s) and place(s) the incident or conduct occurred. If available, the names of witnesses should be provided, but an individual should not hesitate to report harassment merely because there are no witnesses or because he or she cannot identify the witnesses.

The Employer is committed to prompt examination of any harassment complaint received from any of its Practitioners and will take whatever action is appropriate under the circumstances, up to and including termination of employment.

Confidentiality for all parties involved will be respected to the utmost extent possible. The Employer's policy also prohibits retaliation against individuals who in good faith have filed complaints of harassment, even if insufficient evidence is found to support the complaint.

Moreover, if an individual believes that in connection with work for the Employer, a client or an employee or agent of a client is subjecting him or her to harassment, these same procedures to report the harassment should be followed.

Although the Employer may not have the same control over outside persons causing harassment as it does over its own personnel, the Employer will still examine the harassment complaint promptly and take whatever action is appropriate under the circumstances.

If the complaint reported found to be false, then the complainant may be subject to the disciplinary action as decided by the management.
